Paradise found

Fancy island-hopping around the dreamy South Pacific? Cue Variety Cruises, which just happens to be Tahiti-bound in 2021. The new cruises are either eight or 12 days and island-hop around the glorious Society and Tuamotu Islands on the eye-catching Panorama II, a delightful yacht with space for just 50 passengers. As befits a company called Variety, there's plenty of other cruises to entice, from seeking out wildlife in Costa Rica to discovering ancient civilisations in Greece. Good luck picking just one.

Samba on down

Feathers and sequins at the ready because we're off to the Rio Carnival with Azamara. There's ample time to party on this cruise as Azamara Quest stays in Rio for three days as the city comes alive with colourful floats, extravagant costumes, music and dance in the lead up to Lent – and 40 days of abstinence (but those on this cruise are excused!). The voyage is round-trip from Buenos Aires in February 2021 and a fabulous way to uncover the history, culture and tastes of Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil.

Australia's Kimberley region is so amazing that Silversea just can't stay away. Its luxury expedition ship Silver Explorer will be back there for a new season in summer 2021, seeking out crocodile-infested creeks, horizontal waterfalls, the extraordinary Bungle Bungle mountain range and stunning sandstone cliffs. A zodiac expedition through the gorge to the gushing King George Falls is an experience you will never forget.
